

Where to begin...

Let's start with the new faces God brought to church in the last three months. Lately I've been on a daily prayer video call with other pastors from Canada, and after one of those calls, someone knocked on the church door. His name was Félix. I welcomed him in and he mentioned that he was searching for God. He went to two other "church buildings" but no one was there to answer him. I'm glad I was at the building to answer the door. He came back the following Sunday, and on Sunday night I had the privilege to lead him to CHRIST. He's been coming ever since, and we are starting discipleship.

There is also Denis and Danielle, who have been coming regularly. They were very involved in the 7th day Adventist religion and they started to notice that the teachings they received did not match what the Bible was saying. This quest for them started during the pandemic, and while looking on Facebook they stumbled upon our live church feed. After months of watching online, they finally came to church. There is a lot to root out, but they are hungry for God's word and they are amazed at the riches found in the Bible.

Furthermore, a man who had been coming to church got involved in a car accident and broke his leg. He has an alcohol problem and wants to be delivered from those chains. I am meeting with him and his wife every week to study how the Christ and the Bible can set him free from addictions. Pray for Sebastien and Elisabeth.

There is also Caleb, Kelci, and Micah Caviness. They are missionaries to the Republic of Congo, and are in Sherbrooke for language school. They were looking for a church to attend and they found us online. Their desire to serve Christ in the Republic of Congo certainly made an impact in people's hearts. We decided, by faith, as a church, to take them on for support as well. They are now our third missionaries that we support. They are a wonderful family with a great heart for God, and I would recommend them in a heartbeat if any of you are looking for another Missionary family to support.

God also miraculously provided for funds in order to finish the renovation. A friend called and asked me how much we would need to finish the project. He then told me that they would send us a check for the amount needed to complete the work! PRAISE THE LORD!!

We are almost done with the renovation of the basement, and are starting on expanding the sanctuary this week. There is a link in this email with an update video about the project.

We will also celebrate Sarah's third birthday on November 4th. The joy and laughter she brings to the family is truly a blessing.

Thank you for partnering with us as we reach Coaticook for Christ.
